

EUCLID AND AFFILIATE INSTITUTES ADMINISTRATION / OFFICIAL BIOGRAPHIES

IMARA JOHNPULLE ASSISTANT SECRETARY GENERAL - NEW YORK

STATUTORY DESCRIPTION:

- Organ: Executive Board (Statutes, Section X)
 - o Position: Assistant Secretary-General

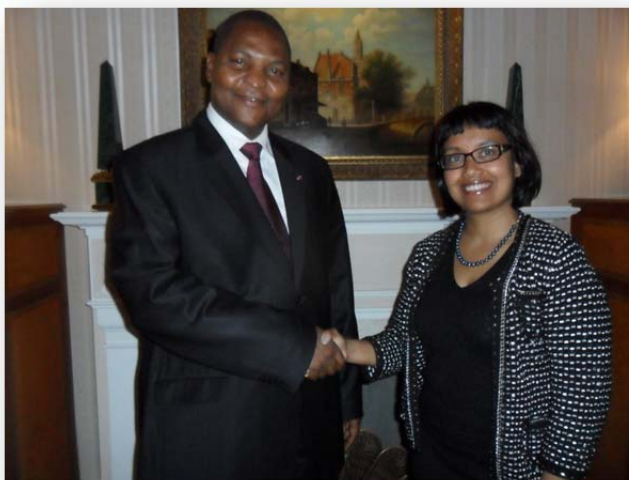

Photo: ASG Johnpullé seen here meeting with CAR Prime Minister Faustin Touadera in New York in May 2011.

BIOGRAPHICAL OVERVIEW

Imara is the daughter of a Sri Lankan diplomat who has acquired a natural sense of international relations and diplomacy.

She has worked at the United Nations Federal Credit Union and at Weill Medical Center of Cornell University, New York.

Imara has been associated with IOSD since its foundation, and was formally appointed as Assistant Secretary General in 2008 and has been acting as point of contact to the Permanent Missions of the EUCLID Participating States. In this capacity, she has met on behalf of the Secretary-General with international leaders level of prime minister and minister of foreign Affairs.

Imara is fluent or conversant with legal languages, including Mandarin Chinese and Singhalese.

EDUCATION

- York University, York, England: BA (Double Honors), English Literature and Linguistics, 9/1993-6/1996 (Concentrations in Mandarin Chinese and Hindi)

Contact Information:

Email: imara@euclid.int

