

EUCLID: PÔLE UNIVERSITAIRE EUCLIDE

SCHOOL OF DIPLOMACY COMPUTING AND SCIENCES
EUROSTATE UNIVERSITY INSTITUTE
SCHOOL OF BUSINESS AND ECONOMICS

FACULTY PROFILE / VITAE:

BRIGITTE BOUZIGUES

BIOGRAPHICAL OVERVIEW / SUMMARY

Brigitte Bouzigues is a “Professeur Agrégé” of the French Ministry of Education, attached to the Academy of Montpellier (France).

She teaches economics, marketing and information systems at the University of Montpellier School of Law and at the Institute of Business Administration (IAE).

Prior to entering the academic realm, Mrs. Bouzigues worked at IBM and CCMC. She held teaching posts at several private institutions of higher learning in Paris before entering public service.

Mrs. Bouzigues serves on the national CAPES jury and on a governmental committee on European degree harmonization. She is also a member of the EUCLID Oversight Council.

She resides near Montpellier, France.

EDUCATION

Ministry of National Education (France)

- Baccalauréat I (Information Systems)
- CAPES
- Governmental « Agrégation »

SUBJECT SPECIALIZATIONS

- IT Governance, Information Systems Management
- E-Marketing
- Project Management
- International and European Economics
- Institutional European Academics

OTHER INFORMATION

- Languages: English and French
- Contact: bouzigues@euclid.int