

EUCLID: PÔLE UNIVERSITAIRE EUCLIDE

FACULTY PROFILE / VITAE:

TAMER BAHLOUL

GENERAL EDUCATION

☞ M.A. Economics: Miami University, 2000 (Oxford, Ohio, USA)
(www.muohio.edu)

(Exit Paper (thesis) topic, An Analysis of Four Southern Counties in The Post Bellum South). Worked as graduate assistant in the Department of Economics.

☞ B.A. Major: Economics, Minor: Arabic: Ohio State University, 1994 (Columbus, Ohio, USA)(www.osu.edu)

EXPERIENCE / PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Adjunct Faculty: EUCLID, since 2009

Assigned to Eritrea LOT3 project, a program funded by the European Union aimed at upgrading the skills of 60 Ministry of Education teachers. Travelled to Asmara and delivered lectures. Graded assignments at Bachelor's and Master's level.

Lecturer, Canadian International College in Cairo, Egypt, (Associate Campus of Cape Breton University which is located in Canada), September, 2009 – Present

- Taught EFL and Technical Communication from the English Department
- Developed course material
- Taught TOELF preparation
- Taught academic writing skills

- Administered placement tests and
- Assigned students to appropriate English course level
- Currently managing study abroad program
- Established contacts with Canadian universities to further develop study abroad program
- Developed and authored all literature that was sent to Canadian universities with the aim of attracting students from Canada

Teacher, Future American School, Alexandria, Egypt, Sept 04 – Feb 05

- Taught mathematics and social studies to 6th, 7th, and 9th grade
- Served on committees for the purpose of acquiring accreditation in the U.S.

Teacher, Cairo Modern House American Division, Cairo, Egypt, Aug 03 – Aug 04

- Taught English and social studies at Cairo Modern House American, Cairo, Egypt
- Taught summer school for high school English
- Served on committees for the purpose of acquiring accreditation in the U.S.

SUBJECT SPECIALIZATIONS

- Economics
- ESL, Academic Writing
- Language and Culture

LANGUAGES

- English: Native
- Arabic: Fluent

CONTACT

- tamer.bahloul@euclid.int