

EUCLID: PÔLE UNIVERSITAIRE EUCLIDE

FACULTY PROFILE / VITAE:

TIM NTOUBA MBOULE

EDUCATION

Norwich University, Northfield, Vermont (2009)
Masters of Art in Diplomacy

Weber State University, Ogden, Utah (2007)
Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice

Tim is currently pursuing doctoral studies and planning to write a thesis dealing with policy recommendation in the area of ethnic – religious conflicts, with a focus on Africa and Christian-Muslim relations.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

EUCLID, Adjunct Instructor in Diplomacy and International Affairs: 2009 to the present.

International Institute for Inter-Religious Diplomacy, Doctoral Fellow: 2009 to the present.

RECENT PUBLICATIONS

Articles / Papers:

- The case of the ethnic conflict in the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC)
- African American Association of Mass Return (2005)

LANGUAGES

English and French:

Read, write, and speak fluently

Tim is also fluent in several African languages and dialects.

CONTACT INFORMATION

mboule@euclid.int