New York, 03 December 2012

Dear Brother, Dear Secretary-General Zahid Ali:

Thank you for your kind letter dated 13 November 2012 which I have received with great appreciation.

In order to ensure the institutional continuity of the relationship between the Union of the Comoros and EUCLID, I hereby accept your kind proposal to serve as Diplomatic High Steward of the Organization, as kindly offered, and in that role to continue the tradition of EUCLID's excellence in higher education to the diplomats and staff of its Participating States. I look forward to meeting your Special Representative in New York, Mr. Robin Van Puyenbroeck, as well as your Assistant Secretary General in Washington, Mr. Chad D'Amore, to further discuss avenues of action to strengthen the work of the Organization.

Looking forward to hosting you at the next General Assembly, I wish to express, Dear Brother and Secretary-General, the assurance of in sincere regards.
