Information circular*

To: Members of the staff
From: The Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management
Subject: United Nations sabbatical leave programme for 2015

1. The purpose of the present information circular is to invite staff to apply for the sabbatical leave programme for 2015 in accordance with the provisions of administrative instruction ST/AI/2011/1 of 23 March 2011.

Eligibility

2. Administrative instruction ST/AI/2011/1 defines the conditions under which staff members may be granted sabbatical leave. For purposes of eligibility for the 2015 sabbatical leave programme, section 2 of the instruction provides that the programme is “open to United Nations staff members who, at the time of application, have completed five years of service with the Secretariat within the last six years and are expected to serve with the Secretariat for no less than two years after completion of the sabbatical leave, subject to staff rule 4.13 (c)”.

Selection of institution

3. Interested staff members are responsible for identifying the institution or organization in which they propose to carry out their research or study project and for securing their acceptance by that institution or organization. Research or study projects may be pursued at universities and independent institutions worldwide, including the research and training centres of the United Nations University and institutions that are members of the Academic Council on the United Nations System, as well as other relevant organizations and institutions. Staff members may wish to consult annex IV to the present circular for a list of institutions that are members of the Academic Council; annex V for a list of research and training centres of the United Nations University; and annex VI for additional participating institutions.

* Expiration date of the present information circular: 31 December 2014.

Application procedures

4. Each application must include the following documents:
 - (a) Application form, contained in annex I to the present circular;
 - (b) Proposal form, contained in annex II to the present circular;
 - (c) Endorsement form, contained in annex III to the present circular, completed by the head of department/office/mission or Director/Chief of Mission Support responsible for the work of the applicant during the proposed research or study project, contained in annex III to the present circular;
 - (d) Two to three signed letters of recommendation;
 - (e) Written correspondence between the applicant and the proposed sabbatical institution concerning potential acceptance;
 - (f) For candidates whose contract will expire during the required two-year period following their sabbatical, a letter from their Executive Office or human resources office stating that there is an expectation that the staff member will serve with the Secretariat for at least two years beyond the end of the sabbatical period;
 - (g) Application checklist contained in annex VII to the present circular.
5. Applicants must submit their applications electronically with all supporting documentation through their respective head of department/office/mission or Director/Chief of Mission Support. All applications must be directed to sabbatical@un.org and received by midnight, New York time, on 30 September 2014. Late or incomplete applications will not be considered; no exceptions will be made.
6. The terms of the proposal submitted by the staff member shall be binding and cannot be modified after the deadline.
7. All proposals will be evaluated by a selection committee on the basis of the criteria set out in administrative instruction ST/AI/2011/1 and the present circular. The Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management shall make a final selection on the basis of the recommendations of the selection committee. The selection decisions are final. Each applicant and his or her head of department/office/mission or Director/Chief of Mission Support will be informed of the decision, regardless of the result of the application. The selected staff members will be requested to accept in writing the specified conditions of the award.
8. A sabbatical leave of up to four months may be approved and must be taken continuously.
9. Staff members who receive a sabbatical award are required to submit, within six months of the completion of their sabbatical leave, a report about their research or study project to the Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management and the sabbatical leave programme manager, through their head of department/office/mission or Director/Chief of Mission Support.
10. All sabbatical leave reports shall be vested in the United Nations, in accordance with staff rule 1.9 on proprietary rights.
