Dear Ms Anderson:

In reply to your letter dated 09/06/2011, I would like to confirm that the convention posted at www.euclid.int under "Legal Documents" was indeed signed by me as indicated by EUCLIDE.

Further, having personally met the Permanent Missions and/or Permanent Representatives of Eritrea, Central African Republic, Sierra Leone and Senegal to the United Nations in EUCLID-related matters, I can attest that these governments are indeed Participating Parties in EUCLID.

Following the untimely passing away of Ambassador De Brum (Marshall Islands) who had served as EUCLID High Steward and Chairman of the Board of Advisors, I was offered to take on this office, which I formally accepted in March 2011.

Please note that EUCLID (properly "Pôle Universitaire EUCLIDE" or "Euclid University") is not to be confused with the Euclid Consortium which is a non-degree granting, private association (consortium) of universities which initially developed the academic programs. EUCLID is an international intergovernmental organization with a university charter and

Dear Ambassador,

I hope you can help me. I am in the process of validating the claims made by Euclid University (<http://www.euclid.int/>) and Euclid Consortium (<http://www.euclidconsortium.org/>) on their web sites regarding agreements they signed with government agencies around the world.

On the following web page titled 'Legal Documents' (<http://www.euclid.int/legaldocuments.asp>) Euclid University claims that the Union of the Comoros has signed an 'Open Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) regarding their participation in the Educational Framework'. I have included a copy of the agreement in this correspondence.

Could you please confirm whether the Union of the Comoros entered into this agreement with Euclid and whether the attached document is the one which was agreed upon and signed?

Please could you also confirm the current relationship between your organisation and Euclid University and Euclid Consortium?

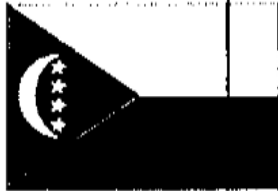

I look forward to your response,

Kind Regards,

Gina Anderson
