Dear Mr. Zahid Ali,

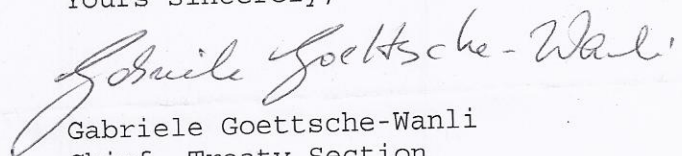

Thank you for your letter of 11 August 2011 transmitting the following instruments:

Open Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between the participating EUCLID parties regarding their participation in the educational framework defined herein.

Updated Framework Agreement regarding the parties' participation in EUCLID as constituted and defined herein.

The adoption of the text of a treaty by the negotiating States is an established requirement under the law of treaties. However, for the above-mentioned instruments, the details of the adoption of the texts are not provided in the certifying statements. Therefore, with regard to each of the above-mentioned instruments, it would be appreciated if the date when the text was adopted by the negotiating States and the place where the text was adopted by them could be provided. In accordance with its practice, the Secretariat requires the date of adoption and the place of adoption in order to proceed with the registration.

Yours sincerely,

Gabriele Goettsche-Wanli
Chief, Treaty Section
